THE NEW CRUSADE

A SONS OF TARRANT DEBUT MANIFESTO

MisanthropistCEL

By Caleb

I want to start off with some words from a few of my heroes;

“WHY WON’T SOMEBODY DO SOMETHING? WHY WON’T SOMEBODY DO SOMETHING? WHY DON’T I DO SOMETHING? The spell broke, why don’t I do something? Why not me? If not me, then who? Why them when I could do it myself? It was there I decided to do something, it was there I decided to take action, to commit to force. To commit to violence. To take the fight to the invaders myself”

“To take a saying from a film, “I see all this stuff going on, and I don't see anyone doing anything about it. And it pisses me off.”. To take a saying from my favorite film, “Even if my life is worth less than a speck of dirt, I want to use it for the good of society.”. I have no choice. I am not in the position to, alone, go into the ghetto and fight. We have no skinheads, no real KKK, no one doing anything but talking on the internet. Well someone has to have the bravery to take it to the real world, and I guess that has to be me.”

“Finally I thought to myself, perhaps there is a chance that we can combat this. Maybe there is a chance that we can take control and prevent our genocide. Maybe we can combat the hedonistic, nihilistic, and individualist insanity that has taken control western thought. I then found other fighters, like Patrick Crucius, Anders Breivek, Dylann Roof, and John Earnest. These men fought for me and had the same goals I did. It was there I asked myself: Why don’t I do something? Finally I felt awakened. It was there I started to think about committing to an attack. To commit to violence. I would follow Tarrant’s lead and the attacks of so many others like him. No longer would I just accept our replacement. No longer would I just accept our genocide. No longer will I willingly serve the people who are trying to end me and my race. I would have to take the fight to the replacers myself.”

These feelings they felt are the same I feel now and their words truly spoke to me. It feels that every day now I see things getting worse in the world and it makes me sick to my stomach and enrages me beyond belief. I always find myself saying “something needs to be done” or “someone needs to do something” but nothing ever happens, and nothing ever will if we don’t make something happen. I can no longer in good conscience just sit idly by and expect someone else to be the one to fight back. How could I possibly expect others to do what I myself am unwilling to do. Then it hit me, I’ve got to do it. Why shouldn’t it be me? Why don’t I just do something? If not me, then who will? So now I believe that it is my turn, my turn with many before me and many more to come, to fight back.

The Universal Enemy

Everyone has their own idea of who is to blame for all the wrong in the world, they will say its the government, the elite, the rich, the politicians, the 1%, the left, the right, the capitalists, the communists, the illuminati, the fags and trannies, the immigrants, and many more. All of them can be traced back to be or be caused by one group, the jews.

IT'S THE JEWS

IT'S THE JEWS

IT'S THE JEWS

IT'S THE JEWS

The Jews across all of time have been behind an EXTREMELY disproportionate amount of the world's problems, whether that be from war, famine, exploitation of children, rise in degeneracy, infighting of peoples, political killings, the separation of family, the departure from the Church, the White race's replacement, mass immigration, central banking systems, and so on, it has always been and always will be, the Jews. There is no moderate option to this problem, they'll always rise back to power or do the same again wherever you exile them to, for any sane man seeing all this the only logical solution would be to just kill them all.

Historical Atrocities

Spreading information and therefore antisemitism, now compared to then is very easy. The further you go back in time the more difficult or even impossible it was to spend information, the only ways you would find something out were from word of mouth, messengers going city to city, then eventually mail and newspaper articles. So if some new group of people came to where you were living it was very unlikely you'd know who they were and what they were doing wherever they came from or what made them have to leave or "escape". So with all of that how was it that somehow, some way over the past several thousand years different peoples of different cultures and languages spread across countries or even entire continents somehow all developed antisemitism. Many many countries had to deal with the Jew and then having enough of them, forcibly expelling them or as they'll tell you "persecuting" them forcing them to leave just to start again in some other poor unaware country that will be their next victim likely accepting them after hearing stories of these "poor innocent Jews escaping persecution" for NO reason at all. After so many instances of this you'd think that maybe it isn't all these other civilizations faults, but rather them who continuously get themselves kicked out and hated. What did they do to get themselves this fate? An entire list of chaos they caused some of which including coin clipping, infiltrations of systems of government and power, gaining a monopoly control on banking and running the people into bankruptcy, switching sides on the people that housed them and allowing their enemies in, causing plagues and famine, acting out their satanic barbaric rituals often on the native people, and much more. In the past several thousand years the Jews have seen themselves expelled from quite a lot of places numerous amounts of times, in fact this has happened 1030 times in 109 different countries, and this number only seems to be increasing. If I were to list all these cases here it would span the document dozens of pages so I'll link here a file showing these events.

The Complete 1030 Jewish Expulsions

Now for the very famous and supposedly very tragic historical event known as the Holocaust where as this fact will constantly be pushed down everyone's throat, a poor innocent six million Jews were brutally and systematically killed. This fact which we have all practically been forced to believe is nothing short of a complete fabrication and possibly one of the largest scandals in history. This number of the "six million" is nothing new, there are newspapers dating back to the early 1900s speaking of this almost as if they had been preparing this lie for years, and the German camps had conveniently been just the thing they were waiting for. The camps were not death camps where they were treated inhumanely as they waited to be killed off, no. In fact quite the opposite, they were labor camps where surprisingly they were treated extremely well with accommodations and amenities that no prisoner would ever dream of, especially not one awaiting extermination.

Judaism and its Practices

Epstein Island is the most disgusting, vile, evil thing of our modern day and yet, it is nothing new. It is just Judaism in its purest form scaled up to an attraction of sorts to blackmail those who will not bend to their will willingly. You'll read those words in the files speaking of those most horrid events imaginable and think "how could they possibly do such disgusting violent things" but for them it was simply following tradition, practices they've done for centuries and the religious books that not only allow these acts but in fact even encourage them.

Media Influence

As is with everything else Jews unsurprisingly have an overly massive amount of representation when it comes to control and influence of the media. This shows with mainstream News, Hollywood, social media, influencers and celebrities, TV, advertising, books both fiction showing historical and current events and non fiction as entertainment. This of course is their main way of controlling the masses of the regular people, your everyday Joe if you will, because as we all know people today consume a lot of media so this game they play is within subliminal messages, repetition of their agenda, and controlling the narrative.

They will constantly smear our name and try to group us in or compare us to other groups as to make it easier for them to control their masses. With the right they'll call us communists, as to them any authoritarian regime is opposed to capitalist "democracy" is communism. With the left though less insulting they will call us fascists, this we are not. While we certainly are closer to the fascists as nationalist socialists and during World War Two we were even allied with many of them we are separate groups ideologically. These grouping terms are meant to make it simple for the pawns of the media on all sides to know who their enemy is without causing too much ache to the brains of the non thinking already enslaved good goys, for the most part there is no explaining to these types the difference or how we aren't what they think we are, they're too far gone. However there will always be people who question what they were told to believe and for that we must certainly be ready.

Political Control

In chess the pieces on either side both hate each other. Meanwhile the people playing moving said pieces are usually good friends, this metaphor is indicative of the modern state of politics being nothing more but left wing Jews versus right wing Jews who laugh together at the goyim behind closed curtains. Within every corner of the political spectrum Jews can be found, it could be in forms of complete control which is most obviously and apparently seen in the moderates like the democrats and republicans but can in many cases also be seen in the extremes, though their influence there becomes a bit more diverse showing in ways like infiltrations of pre existing groups, groups or movements made for the sole purpose of being used as controlled opposition, or as far as blatantly being made by or steamrolled into existence by them, usually made in their image.

Another group that has a lot of control over world events in comparison to their lower numbers similar to the Jews are the Freemasons. I will not lie that I don't know all that much about them and would've loved to learn and find out more because there is certainly something going on there that requires some attention. I've noticed that they use a lot of the same symbology and are but another type of Saturn worshipper. They admittingly seem to be almost intertwined, likely worshipping the same gods and operating similarly. The only real differences between the two groups is one more importantly the Jews seem to have a more personal hatred towards the goyim and specifically whites which I don't think the Freemasons harbor, and also that the Jews are born into their roles both in the ethnic and religious ways which link them to their group power and tribal mentality. While the Freemasons are a group that appears less ethno-religiously exclusive though I imagine it's no small feat to get into and the loyalty to the other members and the group is more cult-like, but again operates almost identically. I'm sure Scientology could also be categorized this way but they seem to just be an odd religious cult rather than a serious threat like the other groups who hold a lot of power and influence, so I personally see no point in investigating them but who knows.

Rise in Degeneracy

There's several ways Jews spread degeneracy but the specific ones I'd like to touch on due to them being the most prevalent are race mixing, the porn industry, and LGBT/transgenderism. In many such cases these three are directly intertwined both in how they are spread, who they are practiced and supported by, and most importantly how they are a direct attack against the white population with the goal of decreasing it by any means possible. These methods are used to propel the white race towards reproductive dead ends when the white birth rates are already in decline in nearly every single white country.

Foids and the Incel Experience

Hate Filled Rant

After the Jew the most evil creature in this world is the woman. This is because after Jews women tend to cause all the problems in the world, they do this in the way similar to centrists and just blatant sheep minded people in the way they are complacent and easy to sway while still having far more control then they should from the foolishness of the men who bend the knee and worship them. To women, men are nothing but accessories similar to that of a purse or piece of clothing. They all crave a man that is way out of their league usually in every single way because of their feeling that they "deserve" it. They'll want a six foot tall man because they want to feel like a small cute little girl, if they still don't feel that way when wearing heels then in their eyes the man "isn't enough" they're always looking for the next better thing as if their partner who is a literal human is just the newest iPhone or trendy item.

"Height difference I deserve! Height difference I deserve! Height difference I deserve!" You deserve nothing. Being short, especially now more than ever is nothing short but a torturous humiliation ritual. As someone who's been short my whole life trust me I know from experience and they've never let me forget it. If you're a man and you are below that magic six foot height you'll be treated as a lesser, if they even acknowledge you at all that is. You'll be made a laughing stock who is treated like as if you were a child or a pet with the way they talk down to you. If you're confident and tall you're just confident, if you're the exact same but short, then you have that "short guy ego", one of many terms they've bestowed upon us to further ridicule us just for our height. If you're short like me they'll never see you as human, plain and simple. They pretend to be the supposed empathetic gender but they're not, like everything else with women it's all two faced lies. Foids don't deserve a man that's six feet tall, no. They deserve to be six feet under, so go ahead and help them with that.

Where did my hatred for women come from? Well mainly just simply interacting with them was enough, they are all the most insufferable, backwards, evil bunch anyone could be forced to have to spend any time with and they'll always flat out deny it and label you with their own evil. Foids always say that while us guys were fiddling our thumbs as kids they were discussing philosophy at twelve years old and we were all behind, well it would appear as if their intelligence also capped off at that age too. A woman if ever at all will rarely think with logic rather making decisions based almost entirely off of feelings and emotion. This is the root cause of many problems because when you have one of the two only genders making often important choices like with voting off of some sob story the elites dangle in front of their faces like keys in front of a baby, it tends to cause some divide. Then of course will come the pussy whipped fools who will abandon their ideals if they had any to begin with, that is, to follow the foids in their stupidity. This accounts for modern feminism, western liberalism, lgbt being propelled into the mainstream, normalisation of abortions, and of course the bringing in of millions of poor poor innocent little brown immigrants (which will then rape them and they'll still blame all men and never acknowledge the race issue). It really is all a cultural war and the side that has the women tends to win more battles(the side with the young men/youth in general too is very important but I digress). To put simply you'll start to build some resentment when you constantly try to appeal reason to a brick wall.

For a girl in my exact shoes they would be treated like that of a god, being praised and worshipped while I, a guy in these exact circumstances, am ridiculed and talked down to. When a girl is short it's endearing, while I as a short guy am treated like a subhuman. When a girl is shy or introverted its cute, but I as a guy for being the exact same am seen as weird and awkward. When a girl is autistic it is seen as quirky, but I being an autist as a guy am treated like a retard. The foids always speak of an inequality between men and women and you know what, they are right. Other than the top ten percent of men(because that's the only ones foids will ever acknowledge or see as human), guys get treated like absolute shit in comparison to women. This much is clearly unfair and the acts that foids have been able to get away with from simply existing as a woman is unforgivable, and so truly a righteous retribution is needed. The Incel Saints knew this well, Saint Elliot, Saint Lepine, Saint Alek, Saint Mercer, Saint Oguzhan, Saint Sodini, and all the others. They'll call you a virgin because that's the only unit of value a foid could ever comprehend, they'll call you ugly if you're not a Chad because of their hypergamous ways, they'll call you an incel regardless if you are or aren't just because you call them out, you disagree with them on anything, or simply because they plain out don't like you. So give them what they want, show them that incel hatred they wont ever shut up about. The revolution awaits.

Genetic Cursing

Hypergamy is the biological and evolutionary trait that all women have that whether intentional or not makes them all evil, self centered, entitled, egotistical whores. But what actually is Hypergamy and how does it work? Hypergamy is the evolutionary trait that causes people, often women, to date up with the goal of the best possible outcome for offspring. This by itself is nothing bad, I mean of course anyone would want their child to have the best genes possible but with the modern woman this has gotten completely out of hand. Not to mention the fact that most foids today don't even have any interest in having children. They now because of that built in genetic trait and of course the internet and other media they all think they deserved the best of the best top 1% men. While men themselves for the most part still tend to go after their looksmatch which is very clearly seen from data taken from dating sites. Foids are now constantly exposed to the best of the best males that the world has to offer on their little phone screen to the point where now when they think of ALL men they only think of Chads. Since their only concept of a male is the best then everyone else, well, gets ignored. Those who don't make the cut from not being quite attractive enough are cursed to an existence of perpetual torture just because a couple centimeters in their face weren't a certain way, they got the wrong chromosomes, or they got unlucky with their genetics which were passed onto them by their parents. Genetic determinism is the most cruel, unfair, brutal reality to accept and women don't make it any easier. As Saint Hamudi said "I was born and my life was over" and this is unfortunately the truth for many.

"The difference between good and bad criminals depends on how well they were dressed. It depends on what weapon they used. It depends on their posture, their voice, their plan of attack. It depends on how they carried themselves. It depends on how they carried it out. It depends on their height, their bone structure, their body fat percentage, their haircut. It depends on who their victim was. Even the very worst of criminal acts are forgiven by simply looking good. Or cool. Or interesting, in some way." I, like many others, was destined for this fate. Ever wonder why people will say "why do they always look like that" or "all shooters look the same" this is because with everything else, this existence is genetically determined. This phenomenon is fittingly named with the phenotype. Many of us tend to look alike and then eventually, reach the same fate because treatment from one's looks or their genetic strands themselves will lead someone onto this path. Then even worse after the fact people will ridicule them further for just taking revenge on those who put that life onto them. No matter what we will always be blamed and hated and seen as the villain while everyone else is the victim, can't blame them when they turn around and get you back. Life is not fair.

The Bioweapons of the Kikes

Middle Easterners and Islam

Let me preface this by saying I don't hate Muslims, at least not really. What I do hate is the religion of Islam itself and what I hate more than that is seeing them here, invading my country. I recognize that with the Middle Eastern immigrants invading our White countries it is typically their worst they have to offer from the worst of the worst Middle Eastern countries, though this is no excuse. I also recognize that while no race is equal to ours among the closest that comes to it is the Middle Easterns, they know how to wage war, they know how to build civilization, they know how to govern, and for this they can get my respect, at least enough to not want to bomb the ever living shit out of their countries, a sentiment that my own government does not share due to working on behalf of a foreign nation state. What has been gained from destabilizing the Middle East? Nothing. At least not for us. It has only gained us endless wars, more and more enemies, attacks on our soil, several thousands of our own dead for nothing, and refugees, a lot of them.

The religion of Islam is in every way incompatible and hostile to western countries. It is completely contradictory to both Western morals and values and Christianity which has dictated many of our societies whether you agree with it or not.

Once the Muslim invaders reach our shores and arrive in our lands they do exactly what you would expect of any invader. They'll assert dominance and lay claim to the land by loudly and obnoxiously praying in our streets, demanding Shaira law, only voting for their own in positions of power, being violent as any shitskin and attacking others often in the name of Islam, and of course raping our women being very young a lot of the time since their book has no problem with that, and killing us with lots and lots of terrorism for Allah. Since 1979 to 2024 there have been around 66,872 Islamist attacks worldwide, which has caused the deaths of at least 249,941 people.

Blacks and Nigger Culture

Race is not just a social construct or "only skin deep" there are many factors both mental and physical that differentiate the races, and none demonstrates that better than the negro. On average blacks have significantly lower IQs than whites. At one point the IQ level to be considered mentally retarded was set at 85 and below but then had to be lowered to 75 due to the fact this would render over 50% of the black population as retarded. The vast majority of the black population ranges in the 80-85 levels of IQ, but this is within what I like to call the "domesticated blacks" this lowers further when talking of the natives of sub-Saharan Africa with an even lower but larger range of 65-80 on average, for reference that's lower than estimates for some animals. So in short, they're dumb. In fact the world's thirty least intelligent countries are all located in Africa minus Haiti which is still essentially also a black country. Another mental factor comes with the brain. Since all humans do indeed have different physical features such as with skeletal builds, here specifically in the skull shape and structure (yet another example of how different the races are). Blacks have far more protruding jaw bones and sloped foreheads compared to their white counterparts which then leaves less space inside their skull for the brain. Which part is left with less space you ask? The frontal cortex. This is extremely important because that part of the brain is responsible for high-level executive functions, including planning, decision-making, reasoning, and impulse control. This regulates emotions, personality, voluntary movement, and speech production. Explains a lot doesn't it?

Blacks as you probably already know, are incredibly violent. Yes we've all heard the 13/50 statistic that despite African "Americans" making up only thirteen percent of the US population they account for over fifty percent of violent crimes. There are also many other fun statistics about the negro population that go mostly unacknowledged, and keep in mind that niggers are famously known for not reporting crimes so chances are these numbers are inaccurate to the actual truth and it could be much worse. Blacks make up 13% of the population but accounted for 25-33% of arrests, with 1,624,000 total arrests in 2024 according to FBI crime data. Getting into the specific crimes blacks account for being 35-40% of total violent crimes which is 3.5-4x higher than whites, 50-55% of homicides which is 5-6x higher than whites, 55-60% of robberies which is 7-8x higher than whites, 30-35% of aggravated assaults which is 2.5-3x higher than whites. Blacks account for 30-35% of total property crimes which is 2-2.5x higher than whites, 35-40% of burglaries which is 2.7-3.3x higher than whites, 25-30% of larceny/theft which is 1.6-2x higher than whites, 45-50% of motor vehicle theft which is 5x higher than whites. Some more crimes they are disproportionately overrepresented in are drug arrests at 30-35% being 2.5-3x more than whites, weapon violations at 40-45% being 4x more than whites, disorderly conduct at 25-30% being 1.6-2x more than whites, DUI/drunk driving at 20-25% being 1.3-1.6x more than whites, rape at 30-35% being 2.5-3x more than whites which means niggers commit 1 in 3 rapes, along with the disgusting fact that in 2008 the interracial rape violence with a white victim and a black attacker was 19,293, while the black victims with a white attacker was zero, you'll never be angry enough. All of these numbers were brought to you via that magical per capita. If you don't already know what that is chances are you wouldn't be able to comprehend it anyways so there's no point explaining it.

People love to bring up socioeconomic factors as an excuse for why blacks are the way they are but this can be easily disproven. For one is the performance in schools, yes on average white students far outperform their black counterparts and no it is not because of funding or difference in home income. I'll bring up some points that prove this, for one it is shown that white kids from poor households tend to perform better in school than black kids from rich households. This is seen in the SAT score gaps between the two races from differing family income levels. Whites have a mean score of 978 on SATs with family incomes under $20,000 and blacks have a mean score of 981 on SATs while having a family income over $200,000 so clearly it isn't that. While it is true that predominantly black neighborhoods have worse access to good quality education due to underfunding, there was once a case where it was the opposite which brought back some interesting results. In 1985 in Kansas City, Missouri a federal plan was enacted to boost the performance of disadvantaged black kids and close the racial test score gap by providing them with an overfunded top notch school facilities in which a whopping $11,700 was spent towards each pupil and the student to teacher ratio was thirteen to one. Fifteen of these schools were built which included all types of amenities not often found at the average school costing local and state taxpayers two billion dollars over the course of twelve years, and the results? Disappointing to say the least. Test scores did not grow and school integration was at an all time low. As you would've expected people denied that this disproved the socioeconomic explanation and proved the genetic explanation to be true, because as you know there are many laws and regulations making any kind of reputable studies showing the link between IQ and race are automatically shut down but evidently there is a huge genetic difference. We're not the same. Sure we all bleed red but we're all miles apart, some more than others. DNA wise races only have a 0.2% difference, doesn't sound a lot until you realize we also only have a 0.9% difference in DNA from primates. Shows how these tiny differences do in fact have a huge impact.

While a lot of problems of the negro race stem from their genetic inferiority a lot of it also comes from their culture. Nigger culture is extremely infectious and destructive which certainly does not help their case. Of course like nearly everything else degenerate it is promoted by Jews to not only the blacks themselves but also the other races as well. And yes the CIA did have a substantial involvement as the niggers love to say to excuse their behavior and short comings. Nonetheless of how it started or who perpetuates it, you niggers still act like niggers. It is now become completely normalized for niggas to be fine staying in the hood living off the government through EBT, Snap, Unemployment checks, Section 8 housing, and other welfare programs almost entirely paid in full by white taxpayers while they struggle to keep afloat themselves. Their women will be extremely promiscuous not committing to a partner but instead having several "baby daddys" to the point where niggas don't have marriage anymore, and it makes sense since both the men and women will cheat and be degenerate sex addicts which is the cause of such high levels of STD spread among the negro race. The men will gravitate towards being in a gang not wanting to work either being the violent apes they're known to be. Rap and the rappers themselves are pushed by jewish media to incentivise and normalise the thug culture and vulgar showings of women often singing disgusting and violent topics which then becomes the black youths idols. It also of course doesn't help that fathers are almost never present and that cycle never seems to end.

For the black community there really is no saving them anymore, a Rockwell solution can no longer be met with them as there is no longer a cordial allyship. I'd almost feel pity if I didn't hate them so much for the black on white violence they've committed, and so for this they all must pay. Many thousands of innocent lives both White and others most prominently Asians have been pointlessly lost to these animalistic niggers. They will never get any real justice if things are to continue as they are because of the supposedly horrible and evil racism that they went through, now blacks will only ever get a slap on the wrist and must be coddled in every avenue of society. The media will always make excuses for them or even completely bury these cases from seeing light in the mainstream. It makes it that much worse that these judges will give niggers lighter sentences often letting career criminals back out on the street to commit again, the jury is no better especially when made up of blacks they'll take the side of the offender no matter what both because of that tribal mentality all non whites have and to quote "fight systemic racism and historical oppression" for this they must be held accountable and punished equal to the criminals they protect. And so I do this to reach some form of real justice for the victims who go ignored, for Irena Zarutska, for Austin Metcalf, for Reece Bowman, for Harvey Gene Muklebust, for Logan Federico, for Autumn Pasquale, for Eve Carson, for Paul and Lidia Marino, for Cannon Hinnant, for Serge Fournier, for Daisey 'Jupitar' Paulsen, for Michael 'Connor' Verkerke, for Milan Loncar, for Christi Spicuzza, for Angela Summers, for Lawrence E. 'Shine' Thornton, for Chris Lane, for Laura Ashley Anderson and Charles Nicholas Wall, for Kelli O'Laughlin, for Isabelle Stroupe, and for all the others I sadly could not name. They will all be remembered and their lives will be avenged.

South Americans Invaders and Mass Immigration and its Consequences

About the south "Americans", by all means of the word it is an invasion. They come in masses continuously with no stop in sight, and I don't mean just the illegal ones, the legal ones too. As of now they are the immigrants we have to deal with the most currently in the US and I'll admit that they are nowhere near as bad as the Africans and middle eastern Muslims that Europe has to deal with and the Indians that countries like Canada and Australia have to deal with. This could be due to their slightly more similar culture, whether that be because they share our muh heckin Judeo-Christian values like the Cuckservatives would say, or the fact that most of them have some European ancestry themselves, this does not excuse the fact that they are invading nonetheless.

They come with complete disregard for the country they come to completely forgetting that it is them that are guests in our country. There are many cases of these immigrant spics especially when closer to the border, where they will come here exclusively for work and send the money back home or even go back home across the border(if they are close enough) which not only are they not even contributing to the economy or the GDP as the left and right moderates love to rave about, they are more importantly taking a job from an actual American. This flood of immigrants, mainly those here illegally, has directly caused a surge in unemployment and difficulty to find a job. This is because they will work for dirt cheap making it so that employers both at the smaller local level and the big corporate CEO levels will hire an immigrant over YOU an American. And the same situation applies for other immigrants such as from India and other Asian countries or just any third worlders who are "capable" of the job. This allows it so that it becomes harder for workers to unionize, and you can't demand better wages or benefits, because there's always a third world immigrant who will replace you and work for cheaper. The common excuse for this is that they all work the jobs nobody wants to so it's a good thing, it is not. It reduced the amount of entry level jobs that Americans can get and Americans WOULD do these jobs if they could live off the wages those jobs provide, but with a flood of illegals ready to do it for half the price that would be impossible when an employer will always choose the latter. Another problem caused by a workplace becoming overly diverse is communication barriers. When there are multiple, often clashing cultures and languages in one workplace it becomes extremely difficult interacting, which in turn could even cause an employer to replace you with more of the same third worlders to make communication between the workers both easier for the immigrants and cheaper for the companies who prioritize profit over everything else. Mass immigration no matter who or where from is extremely harmful. It only causes a complete cultural and racial replacement, conveniently always being in white countries of course. All immigrants, legal or not, have no care for the countries they invade. They start as "just wanting a better life" and those who are hopelessly and idiotically empathetic to them will allow it, but that's only how it starts. Once they have their foothold in a country they'll gain power there and feel a sense that THEY themselves are of that land and not just residing in it due to the kindness of whites, they'll then only elect their own into power striving towards their own goals while simultaneously making the country more like whatever shithole they may have called home. They'll make little tight-knit communities of immigrants and more and more will come to that area until the original inhabitants are pushed out, even going as far as saying this is a "[insert whatever shitskin immigrant] area only!" and saying "no whites here!". Examples of this are such as in Texas in the US and also the UK with Muslims trying to make their own Sharia Law following towns, and with the Somalis in Minnesota, who now scam the government for millions and millions of dollars out of the American taxpayers pocket. Immigrants to nobody's surprise except maybe the faggots who keep letting them in, commit a very noticeably higher amount of crimes than the inhabitants of the countries they do it in. When you travel somewhere you're not supposed to bring with you any animals or plants because they would be invasive and disrupt or destroy the native inhabitants of those ecosystems. As you would have it when the same thought process is applied to people of different lands and cultures the same problem arises even worse so, who would've guessed?

What is the point of immigration, for the immigrants themselves it's "for a better life" usually specifically for their children, and for the people importing them it's for cheap entry level workers. The problem here lies that the children of these low level workers end up striving for the "American dream" and go to college getting high level jobs further over saturating those job markets and so the already imported workers don't stay in those entry level jobs, meaning that the corporations need to then bring EVEN MORE immigrants to replace those immigrants who no longer work making an endless cycle of new "slaves"

To say it simply all these immigrant spics, chinks, niggers, muzzies, and non whites of all kind, DO. NOT. FUCKING. BELONG. HERE.

Faggots and Trannies

What do I think of them? Not much. As some of my predecessors said "As long as they are loyal to the race and not traitors" they see no problem with them, this is where I disagree. Being homosexual the way I see it is the most foolish way you could be a traitor to your race, as is the problem of it indeed it being "the birthrates" to then go against nature and not procreate with the opposite sex directly furthering the decrease of white births, because of the incredibly selfish choice to fuck around with another guy or woman(depending on if the person is a guy or woman) is again, the most stupid way you could betray your race. It is also quite frankly extremely degenerate behavior as with many who consider themselves members of the lgbt community largely using it as an excuse to openly show off their disgusting fetishes publicly and live a life of degeneracy without feeling shame. Though I'll acknowledge there are some who aren't like this and are quote "normal gays" who are just attracted to the same gender without being weird about it, which I dislike less than the others, there still remains the dilemma that they are one less white who will reproduce(obviously, for non white fags I could give less a shit. The rope awaits no matter who you decide to bum it with).

For the trannies, you disgust me. You are nothing short of completely deranged and mentally ill, trying to force your delusion to become our reality. The degeneracy that the faggots indulge in are multiplied ten fold with you, your whole existence the majority of the time is a porn addiction that went too far and became your personality. In so many instances with both gays and especially transgenders they end up being child molesters and pedophiles, even going as far as adopting young kids since they typically cannot have their own and putting them through the hell of having them as parents or even sexually abusing them. Not to mention the adverse harmful effects of a child missing either a mother or father. The spread of lgbt ideology has caused the dramatic increase in its members mostly among the youth who would have never in a million years considered it if they had not been exposed to it, and it's about time we start treating it as it is, degeneracy. You will never be a real woman, you will never be a real man, there is no such thing as non binary or any other arbitrary pronouns, so to you I say this, follow your statistic and tie that noose and kick the chair faggot.

Mainstream Politics, an Illusion of Choice

A left wing revolution will never come, but a white revolution is coming, and there's nothing you can do to stop it. You aren't a communist revolutionary, you are nothing, you are too scared to hold a gun, you consume the same slop you critique the capitalists for, you follow the same ideology that (((they))) told you was the only way to fight against what you've deemed evil, all you do is whine and complain on the internet with no change ever in sight. The few times one of you actually gets up and "does something" you all cheer and celebrate but none of you ever follow suit. Your movement has no momentum. You are full of decentralized values and beliefs that often cause infighting at every level of the leftist spectrum. Nothing. Will ever. Happen. But please go and try, I applaud you for your commitment to your ideas as retarded as they are. Actually go out and do something, anything really. Every single one of you is always saying "someone should do something" but always too scared to be the one, so go and do it leftist, lead that "revolution" you've been talking about for decades. You want real change? Can't be done with government approved protests and marches or petty rioting over some nigger who got themselves shot by police, do something worthwhile. You hate Trump so much? Then kill him! And this time don't miss. Or better yet, he's already on his way out. Take out Vance instead, he's best buddies with the CEO of Palantir and so if he makes it into office you can be guaranteed that you'll live in a real life 1984. Remember no matter who you are, nobody likes a Big Brother surveillance state, so go out and do it leftie prove your side CAN start a revolution. And for the MAGAtard boomers eating this message up from whatever AI slop using Youtube channel or Fox news segment is informing you of it to spin me into some type of "radical leftist", YES I am inciting violence from the left, because as an accelerationist I know that it takes all sides opening fire to cause that much desired societal collapse. So go ahead, follow through for once.

The Right

As someone who used to consider themselves a "right winger" with various views over the years of Libertarian, Conservatism, and basic moderate right Nationalistic views, I can say from experience that the right wing in America is a complete and utter failure. Conservatism, especially under the scope of the modern political sphere, is dead. The left continues to have a cult following with the youth while the right has nearly completely lost all of their support from the youth being filled with nothing but a dying generation of boomers who cling to an aesthetic of America that no longer exists because of their own foolishness and lack of an attempt to even preserve or "conserve" it, living in a time where consumption and capitalism ruled supreme leaving absolutely no future for their children or grandchildren. Conservatives fail to conserve anything being for the past several decades nothing but a losing battle defending an ever enclosing circle of values lost to compromise. Every decade more and more of the values that made the right the so called "traditionalist" party has been lost with enslavement to optics and trying to "get with the times" as the left would push and push to more and more radical ideas the right would give more and more footway compromising to the enemy where now the two are indistinguishable from each other.

It would be impossible to talk about the right today without talking about Trump and the Make America "Great" Again movement. A lot of people seem to still cling to him, thinking him as some sort of white savior as if it were still 2016, was he ever really our guy? Probably not. The evidence surely says against this idea, like nearly every billionaire he was always a bought out shabbos goy until of course he converted to Judaism in 2017, a fact that many Magatard Judeo Christian's either refuse to believe or worship him even more so for it. Also interestingly enough that event got very little media coverage but I'm sure that's just a coincidence and totally not intentional to maintain his Christian voters. In the rare chance he was ever our guy it's painfully obvious he isn't now and hasn't been for quite some time, stop saying "he's not as bad as the other options" or "at least he's deporting illegals" (which he's slowing down on when he hasn't even matched one of Obama's terms deportations with both his terms combined despite that being his main selling point of his campaign) fucking let it go already, do not settle for compromise. Stop fooling yourself that the right wing politicians are any less traitorous than the leftist ones. You "responsible conservative" types will get the rope same as all the rest. Also, no he was not a Nazi, none of these center right figures are or ever were. Neither are the alt or dissident right they are faggots obsessed with optics trying still "redpill the normies" and avoiding being called a Nazi(which they still wil be by the left and moderates who view them as violent radicals all the same). End the divide and join, no battle has ever been won by trying to half ass it.

Centrists and Apoliticals

You are a slave to your bread and circuses. Your biggest concerns in life are when the newest Hollywood or superhero movie comes out, when the next installment of a triple A game will release, whatever celebrity drama is happening on your social media feed that you'll mindlessly scroll for hours, you'll tune into the current sports game and cheer on your favorite team religiously while simultaneously giving no care to your own country or people, you'll happily go out and eat fast food and buy slop at the grocery store slowly destroying your own body, you'll participate in whatever stupid trends are currently popular wasting both your time and money, all while being the goodest goy you can. Your life will consist of clocking into a nine to five everyday, trying to keep up with bills, maybe trying to start a family if you can or fall down the online dating apps and hookup culture trap, if you're lucky you'll be able to travel somewhere once or twice a year, just being a wage slave your whole life striving to maybe retire before you're old just to then live out rotting in the mess of a body you've created with your terrible habits and guilty pleasures all those years just to then die in some hospital or retirement home if that theoretical family mentioned earlier sends you there, that's of course if that life of the modern man doesn't kill you along the way first. That's your life, are you excited? Because I'm not. That life is no life at all, it is meaningless work that does not matter in the natural world, and yet you're content with it, and even if you're not you'll do nothing about it.

For the radical man these ploys do not work, it can't work when the bread is poisoned and the circuses tell me how much they hate me, so if you're anything like me you've had enough. Normalcy as we know it today is not normal, it is an extremely new and quite frankly disgusting concept that our lives must consist of slaving away so that we may be able to consume and have and maintain all our amenities and devices that make our lives easier and more convenient while simultaneously making our lives unfulfilling leaving those who have a feeling that something isn't right yearning for a way of life that was not too long ago lived but yet completely robbed of them. The non caring, consumeristic, "I'm too busy for any revolution or to get too into politics" normie is the death of our once great nations and to this I say you, in this upcoming war there will be no longer an option to stay at the sidelines and watch horrors unfold, you will be forced to pick a side, the frontlines will no longer be across the world from you, the frontline will be in your backyard, streets, schools, place of worship, stores, and everywhere else you attempt to flee to. You will either join us or perish with the rest.

About me

My name is Caleb Vazquez, at the time of writing this I am 18 years old and will possibly remain this age forever only you know. I am half Spanish and some French and half Northern Mexican which would make me about 70-85% of European genetic descent, knowing how many of you see Nick Fuentes you'll probably just see me as a larping spic but that's honestly fine and I could care less. Yes I had some mental issues which I'm sure will come out eventually, so I won't waste any time talking about it here. People will make all types of assumptions about what I was, so I'm going to make that info clear here. I am a straight male. I am certainly not left wing, nor am I right wing especially not with Maga or Trump, politically I'd call myself a Third Positionist specifically aligning most with Nationalist Socialism and Eco Fascism though any Third Positionism especially those that prioritize its people, nationalism, racial homogeneity, nature, traditionalist ideals, etc. is one I agree with and would follow. What was I religiously? Doesn't matter, really at the end of the day as a friend once said, my religion is the white race.

I am also an Accelerationist, I believe that accelerating towards the destruction of our current political system and towards an all-out race war for the purpose of a societal collapse is the only real way forward, I don't believe there is a diplomatic solution to the problem we currently find ourselves in, as they would never allow it. While I do somewhat like movements like Patriot Front, America First, and various Nationalist Socialist political movements, I don't believe a diplomatic approach of protesting, voting and infiltration could ever do anything to topple or even fix the current system of government. What we need is total dropout revolution.

Our "democracy" is a joke, our votes and opinions mean nothing due to the fact that every single one of our electable leaders are either paid off or just puppets instated by the ZOG, plus most elections are rigged anyways. And for the capitalist system you don't need me to explain to you that it is extremely flawed, in its current state it breeds nothing but corruption, leaches off the people with consumerism, and destroys nature for profit. Yes, at its beginning capitalism in the US had worked but now in the long run it is nothing but monopolies which only serve to make the rich richer and causes everything to be centrally owned by a handful of the top elites. I also don't mind nuclear accelerationism, though the fact that it would also destroy nature with difficulty of it returning to a pre-humanity state makes it less than ideal, so an acceleration towards a majority white ethno state would be the best path forward. Though Hiroshima and Nagasaki seem to be doing better today than most sanctuary cities here in the US so who knows.

Was I an "Incel"? I suppose so, and most would call me it, though I'd say Volcel would probably be a more accurate term. Regardless of that I do consider myself a misogynist and hold a lot of hatred in my heart for the female population, and to be fair I certainly was quite involved in the online incel culture. And no, I wasn't some Tiktok "noticer" newgen who got radicalized off of Agartha and Vril edits. I've been here in the community since 2022 and even before had somewhat adjacent views. I find those new people extremely annoying and infuriating who then do nothing for the movement while making it seem like a joke and reducing our community, memes, and dogwhistles to nothing but another normie brainrot trend.

What actually radicalized me? Simple, you did. Learning the truth and being exposed to the actions of the enemy is what drove me to the point of radicalization, so thanks for that. Was I in any groups? Though officially I was not apart of any groups or organizations there are many I support, I would even go so far as to say I did it for Atomwaffen Division, Terrorgram, The Base, and North Korea. I went by a couple usernames online being Flecktarn Crusader, Shmerg Trvecel, and Chvdcel Groyper among some lesser used ones so if these sound familiar then cool, we knew each other. What kind of music did I listen to? Well for one Nightcore and Hardtekk obviously, these are irresistible to the neurodivergent mind. I also enjoy Incelcore, it's my favorite genre along with bands like Blackmagick SS, Edelweiss, and Curta'n Wall.

Now that we got all the basic shit out the way, why am I like this? IT IS BECAUSE OF ALL THESE YEARS OF RIDICULE, REJECTION, BEING IGNORED AND BEING TREATED LIKE A JOKE. To take a quote from one of my favorite films, "What do you get when you cross a mentally ill loner with a society that abandons him and treats him like trash? I'll tell you what you get, you get what you fucking deserve!" You all thought it was hilarious to treat me like I was subhuman, to make fun of and tease me for every little thing. No matter how hard I'd try, I could never fix myself there was always something to make fun of me for, and I hate you all for it. You drove me to this leaving me no other option. I could have been normal but you took any future I could have had from me and forced me onto this path. I am the consequences of your actions, a destruction of your own making. Now I will be like a god compared to you, and you will feel my wrath. As one of the greatest philosophers of our time said, "The truth is that the only way to get over what somebody did to you is to get revenge."

Goals and Objectives of the Crusade

What are you even hoping to achieve in all this? I'm so glad you asked. Before Tarrant there were a decent amount of people that fought in our interests but they were few and far in between, after Tarrant though is a much different story in the same year that Brenton Tarrant had done his attack on full display to the world many other Saints came out of the woodwork in a relatively short time frame such as John Earnest, Patrick Crusius, Phillip Manhaus, and Stephan Balliet. But then like with many other things COVID came and halted that momentum, and now it has gone back to much the same as before with only a few notable events happening every so often. However in this last year or so the frequency of these events has increased and my hope is to take advantage of that. The number one goal of this New Crusade is to restart and bring back the momentum that Saint Tarrant had started, to convince many other would be Saints that the time is now, and most importantly to kick start the race war. There's so many of us that have considered it and just imagine what could be if we all got up and finally followed through and just did it, did something, fought back. The future is yours white man, don't just sit down and let them take it from you.

All violence is good violence, even from the enemy. No, especially from the enemy. Another animalistic violent nigger or some crazy radical Islamist going out and killing some innocent and unsuspecting White will do more for our cause than we ourselves could do. When it hits the news of another attack against a White person especially with our young it'll radicalize people, let's say if a couple thousand people become radicalized from it one of them is bound to do something and return the favor. Then the enemy will do something back, niggers are quite triballistic with their own in this way(a trait we seriously need to follow)thus creating a cycle of revenge attacks which will only cause more and increase how often they happen. There is no problem that violence cannot solve, one must just know how and where to direct it for favorable results and reactions.

How many will actually read this? Not many. Unfortunately there is increasingly less and less people reading and doing their own research to further their knowledge of the movement(this is a widespread problem in everything not just our specific movement) but despite that there is also an increase in interest and willingness to fight, and so to reach your audience you have to hit them where home is. How does one do that? Edits, memes, and propaganda based shitposting of all kinds, this has done more to radicalize the masses than any book or manifesto ever could. So to be successful make sure to provide the means to create all this propaganda. Livestream your day of action, make videos that will rile people up, God knows the AWD propaganda videos did that for me, leave behind writings to the best of your ability, become as memeable and iconic as possible, and of course, raise hell at the enemy. This is how we win.

With that being said, you should absolutely read and get as educated as possible. There are many good books and writings to further your knowledge of the movement, ideology, and problems our race faces today. Of these I recommend most The Great Replacement by Brenton Tarrant, in our day and age it is the most important and imperative thing to read. Other manifestos by the other Saints are also extremely important such as with Gendron and Earnest for their additional information of our causes but then still, if there was one singular thing to read it would be The Great Replacement. In these times we are against the majority and time is not on our side, and so it is of my opinion that the writings of Tarrant are the most valuable with its relatively short length but informative and radicalizing content. It contains everything the White man needs to know why and what he's fighting for. Another book I highly recommend is The Turner Diaries by William Pierce, while fictional it is endlessly invaluable and insightful with its political and social commentary on what could become of the world if we do not fight back now and what could be if we as a race united, and fought back against the system. Then of course, read Siege by James Mason. In our war against the system it acts like that of a manual for our revolution and should be read almost biblically by all soldiers of the white race.

There are other books that should be read such as most importantly of them being Mein Kampf. This is obvious if you are or consider yourself a Nationalist Socialist/Nazi. If you aren't and are just a white supremacist or something along those lines then you could disregard it I suppose, though I'd still recommend it. Other good reads would be The International Jew, Industrial Society and it's Future, Harassment Architecture, the various writings of Terrorgram, other Saint's manifestos, and White Resistance Manual, among some others if you can find them. Personally I found Telegram channels to be a great place to find these types of literature. Here's some of the writings and books mentioned:

The Great Replacement

Turner Diaries

Siege

Mein Kampf

The International Jew

Industrial Society and it's Future Harassment Architecture

Plan of Action

What's the plan? Blitzkrieg. Cause as much death and destruction to the system and the invaders as efficiently and quickly as possible with a “diverse”(lol) selection of targets.

Location one:

Location two:

Location three:

Possible other location(s)? These will be if fate has given us enough time to go after other targets or to cause a little more chaos to distract and increase the response time to where we actually are. All locations were surveyed and mapped out to the best of our ability without raising suspicion or attention to us by using satellite and street views on Google maps along with using pictures on reviews to try and get an idea of the layout. The websites of these respective spots were also used to try and fish out any more information that could be useful to us. We then used both these sources to find out their schedules and most busy and popular times and compared them to choose the best time and date to maximize results from all locations. I highly recommend doing the same for your target location(s) to minimize risk and not be going in blind. We also of course did some in person reconnaissance by driving by on the street but this was less effective though still useful to see in person how many people would be at the different spots at what times.

[UNFINISHED]

There's a lot I want to happen during the day of the Crusade and I feel it would be smart to write those out both to easily remember them and also so it can be made known to you my direct intentions for that day. You’ll also be able to judge on whether or not I even accomplished everything I wanted/felt the need to do or not, similar to Payton’s plan of action or Stephan’s achievements list. I’ve laid out some requirements I’d like to hit being basically a To-do-list for my Day of Action, so here's that list:

Die. That's the most important thing to me, I would’ve ended myself regardless but thought to at least do something to help my race instead of just selfishly wasting my life. I don’t care how it happens whether it is self-inflicted either on purpose or by accident, by responding pigs, the security, or some armed civilian hero, it doesn't matter as long as I'm dead by the end of it. If by some chance I am captured I will go ahead and use it to my advantage but it would be annoying.

Spread our message. I'll make sure to properly post the links to all of our writings and of course the stream links to both our GoPro POVs but once that happens the archiving and spreading will be up to you, so do your part. I will have to make sure that all documents and folders are easily and public to be accessed and saved, checking both beforehand and day of to confirm this. I will do several test streams to optimize its setup, likely being on either 420p or 720p to find a balance between not having a laggy livestream but still decent quality. During I will double check that they are up and running and wait until a satisfactory number of people have joined to better our odds that someone actually records. There will also be several copies of everything posted both in our logs, sent out to people(maybe), and posted to various sites likely being Sharty, 8Kun, Zarty, and EndChan.

Win. I hope that we are successful in completing every aspect of our plan. Though there will be far too many variables and will be impossible to control the uncertainty so this is unlikely. To be considered perfectly according to plan we will hit all three planned for locations, neutralize armed guards if present without sustaining injuries, maximise casualties and destruction, confirm as many kills as possible, be in and out within two minutes or less to keep moving, cause enough chaos in our path to keep the pigs distracted and off our tail, be able to do more than originally planned for, evade capture and escape to Hyperborea(anhero). It is more than likely that we will be stopped before we hit all of our originally planned locations and may have to improvise, maybe needing to hit locations out of order or skip one entirely(hopefully finding a replacement) and may not be able to confirm all of our kills or damage the enemy sites enough. Regardless, planning for everything that could happen and having backups will definitely help.

Sons of Tarrant

What is the Sons of Tarrant(SOT)? just another piece of propaganda to help further spread our reach. Use it if you'd like, or don't. Dogwhistles and groups come and go constantly so there's no telling what will stick and what will die out without gaining much traction, and so this is our attempt at making something like that and we just thought it sounded and looked cool. Who are or could be considered "Sons of Tarrant", well we are, all previous disciples of Tarrant and others who were inspired by him, and maybe one day, you too. The goal of SOT is that it would create a sense of belonging and union to those who end up on the path of martyrdom similar to Terrorgrams's "Sainthood", you're not just a lone wolf attacker, you're one of many joining the fight for our race. We'll use it to give ourselves a name and to those who also see Tarrant as the revolutionary he is and have considered following his lead as we have, we hope you'll soon join our ranks. While we know Tarrant himself didn't consider himself a quote "Nazi", we do and are ourselves. This is a necessity to be SOT or at least be a white supremacist and be allied with us ideologically. If you decide to larp this and not take part on the frontlines of this fight we only ask that you fight from the homefront by creating as much propaganda as possible, who knows maybe your shitpost could inspire the next Saint. And of course, remember lads subscribe to Pewdiepie.

Zellig Rant

I recognize the stupidity of having this included in here but I feel the need to say it. This is less about Ongezellig itself though that is also extremely important to me, but more so about the gentrification of all of our media, memes, and trends by the normie crowds. This is something I'd like to stop or at least slow down as much as possible and how can that be done? By making them once again something a normie would not want to associate like how the majority of our stuff was before becoming mainstream. This is most clearly seen with incel terminology and the word "Chud", it pains my heart to see randoms using it when clearly they have no idea of its origins or what it actually is and so I'd like to reclaim it as our term and show them truly what a real Chud is. Ongezellig I've also noticed is going down that path of being ruined by the normiefags since it's becoming less niche and seen as that show that "all those racists like" and now just a normal thing that genuine faggots are invading.

The worst part to me is that they constantly bitch and complain about the original fanbase as if it weren't ours first and it wasn't us who had kept it alive all that time even when its creator abandoned it. It was practically made for us, Mymy is a based racist nationalist who commits schoolcausts(this accounts for the Nazis and Chuds who love the show), Maya who is a depressed neurodivergent loner who likes to you know what(this accounts for the incels and gooners who love the show), and Coco who's always just great and the sweetest(I don't know who this would account for I suppose maybe the normal fans not including newfags who i mentioned previous). But you know who accounts for all those insufferably faggots who just entered the fandom not even knowing about it until they saw it on TikTok to represent them? Yana, the fucking kike. Despite what they say, she isn't even a real zellig character just like how they aren't even real fans. Similar to how niggers invade our countries, faggots invade our communities and this has to stop. So along with everything else my goal of this event is to reclaim what is rightfully ours. And yes, Zellig will always be a gem.

Heroes and Inspirations

Brenton Tarrant: Obviously both of our biggest inspiration. Saint Tarrant revolutionized and brought forth a new age of White Terror bringing us many more Saints. We are proud and honored to be the next in the now long chain of his disciples and we hope to make him proud and honor his legacy. To me as I see it he's the greatest Saint of them all and has done the most, combining his creation of the live-streamed attack, his high score, how iconic his gear and weapons were with the writing on them, his amazing manifesto, him propelling Eco Fascism and Accelerationism into the mainstream, how memeable his event was, and with everything else there's no doubt or competition to this when you lay out all the facts he truly is the best. Hail Brenton Harrison Tarrant our hero, a true revolutionary.

Payton Gendron: My personal favorite Saint and second to Tarrant the biggest catalyst towards my radicalization. I relate to Payton a lot as we share a lot in common to the paths that led us to where we are. Having similar interests, upbringing, how we were radicalized, being directly inspired most by Brenton, being close in age, preparation and gear. I only wish I could have met him. His writings were endlessly helpful in my own planning and were generally a great read, especially with the included graphs and memes. His manifesto also gave much insight on both the jews and blacks giving well explained information with sources, also being one of the first disciples of Tarrant after a long gap between the last bunch. Thank you Payton Gendron I wouldn't have been able to go through with this without you, just gotta go for it right?

William Luther Pierce: Heil Dr. William Pierce, he is among those who inspired me most and his writings were both fantastic and radicalizing. Coincidentally we live in the same place that in Turner Diaries the Organization took over and made it into a white utopia, so I'll gladly fight to make that a reality for my home. If valleys full of beautiful flowers have to sprout from the corpses of both our enemies and our own in the soil of southern California then so be it. As Pierce said "There is no way we can destroy the system without hurting many thousands of innocent people" and have no doubt the system will be destroyed.

Adolf Hitler: I doubt any explanation is required here, but yes I owe it all to the Fuhrer. He is the greatest man to ever walk this Earth and if anyone is a hero it is him. I know that he is watching us now and happy to see that now just as he said and prophesied "My spirit will rise from the grave and the world will see I was right". I only hope that we can finish what he had once started and make him proud, Heil Hitler.

Brandon Russel: I'm sure it is abundantly clear that I am a huge fan of Brandon's Atomwaffen Division and so it would go without saying that he's a personal hero of mine and a huge inspiration. I wish I could have had an opportunity to join and fight in their ranks, but all the same I will do this in their honor. The system may have captured him but they have not stamped out his influence, for Brandon Russel and the AWD "A new order will rise from the ashes of the kike system".

James Mason: Again, do I even need to explain? Mason's writings in Siege have provided me with the backbone of my entire ideology and belief system. Nearly every word he wrote I agreed with and took as my own to follow, I cannot stress this enough read Siege, it is such an important and life changing book it made me rethink some of my own beliefs I had held prior to reading it and James Mason himself is an example of a Nationalist Socialist revolutionary in its purest form we have today.

Elliot Rodgers: The king of the incels, the Supreme Gentleman, our hero Elliot. He is the face of us and for good reason. Many of us can resonate with his struggles and his life was the clearest example of how poorly incels and especially NDs get treated, his retribution was righteous and he deserved better but now he's never forgotten.

James Huberty: Just as James Mason said in Siege he really is an American hero and one of the first of his kind, he was along the first to act against the system in the way Saints commonly do now and for that Huberty should be remembered far more than he currently is, he was no madman he was a hero.

Robert Bowers: Like Huberty, he is too often forgotten especially with how big an impact he made being the deadliest attack against Jews in the US and the fact he chose that target specifically because of their involvement with HIAS which did directly cause more mass immigration and refugees to be flooded into the country. His target was purposefully and intelligently selected and he certainly took out a high number of both kikes and the systems pigs. As he famously said "screw your optics I'm going in".

Omar Mateen: The only Muslim I like along with maybe the Bondi beach shooter (unless it was a false flag event which it very well could've been). He killed a shit ton of faggots and for that he gets my respect, hell if the AWD celebrated him then I definitely will also. Theres rumor he himself was a fag but nothing was ever confirmed and even if so I'd say he redeemed himself for taking 49 of them out. I also agree with his motives, the US should never have been in the middle east killing random civilians and for that they deserved Pulse. Mateen is an absolute hero and the type of muzzie I could get along with. For the rest of you islamists back home keep up the good work of throwing those homos off of roofs lol.

Columbine: It would be impossible and a flat out lie to say I wasn't in the slightest bit inspired by Eric and Dylan, I mean nowadays which of us isn't? Along with the fact we are also a duo the resemblance is there and we even intend to wear shirts under our gear similar to how they did along with other stuff they were known for. While I didn't particularly want to contribute to the "columbine effect" and be deemed another copycat, I feel I have to give respect where it is due, so yeah color me inspired.

Honorable mentions: Mymy Schoppenboer, Patrick Crusius, John Earnest, Ryan Palmeter, Stephan Balliet, Dylann Roof, Mark Lepine, Timofey Kulyamov, Juraj Krajčík, Timothy Mcveigh, Anders Behring Breviek, Anton Lundin Peterson, George Lincoln Rockwell, the Crusaders, Tesak, Robert E. Lee, Ted Kaczynski, the Confederacy, Alexandre Bissonnette, Derek Chauvin, Solomon Henderson, Shauiby Aslam, Mike Ma, Arda Küçükyetim, Jonathan Bowden, Philip Manhaus,

I know that for my actions I will be called evil and a monster, but the history books are soaked with the blood of heroes who time has deemed to be in the wrong. (((They))) are more powerful and untouchable than they've ever been throughout all of history, truly it will be the hardest it ever could be to fight back and overthrow them, but it must be done because it'll only get worse and we may lose our chance completely leaving our grandchildren and beyond without a way out. Many of us will die, we certainly are the "sacrifice generation" and this is nothing to take lightly, but again it must be done. That's why I will gladly make an attempt, one cannot expect the ball of revolution to start rolling without doing it themselves. So yes this is a call to arms, find a brother in action, make a plan, find their weak spots, destroy their infrastructure, give them hell. Someone's got to do it and it has to be us, because if not us, then who? And to the Saints of tomorrow reading this today, know that when you succeed you'll be celebrated with reverence and your sacrifice will not be in vain. Hail the Saints and hail our glorious and bloody legacy of White Terror.

DEATH TO THE WORLD

BY CAIN CLARK

Consider this my gift to all Europeans.

I'm sorry if there are any typos or if this translates poorly into a different language.

The Other Side of Politics:

"Whether you swung to the right or whether you swung to the left, we will simply swing you by the neck." -William Luther Pierce

The left advocates for progression at all costs, not realizing how damaging that truly is.

And the right tries to "conserve" traditional values, yet they support technological, economic, and cultural "growth".

The left says we need to bring in as many immigrants as possible, not realizing/caring that all that does is make our society a third-world shithole while replacing white people.

The right believes that immigration is okay as long as it's “legal”, this, in practice, merely causes the decay and replacement to come slower, instead of stopping it.

Both of these ideas are retarded, all immigration does is bring cultural and societal decay without any benefit.

Those on the left say we need to help the immigrants to improve their lives, but who made it shit in the first place?

The people on the right say immigration boosts the “economy” and the “GDP” so it must be good, but that's bullshit. The GDP goes up because more people are in the country, it doesn't determine the quality of life. And I would much rather have a worse economy run by only white people than a “better” one run by niggers.

When it comes to conservatives trying to “conserve” traditional values, they fail miserably. It's actually sad to see.

They don't conserve shit, all they do is slow down the impending doom and call it “democracy” and “freedom”.

I believe conservatism is the ideology of a coward because at least the left pushes for their beliefs, even if those beliefs are idiotic in nature.

The left wing, as stupid as they are, aren't cowards. They may be out of shape and mentally ill, but if I can give them anything, it's that they at least try to push their beliefs.

Even the “alt-right/far-right” doesn't really push their beliefs, sure they push out propaganda, but when’s the last time you've actually seen them do anything important? When’s the last time they made the news?

Now obviously this doesn't include the lone-wolf saints, I mean the organized groups like Patriot Front or the NSM.

Sure, they march and march and march and hold rallies, but what does that actually do? I don’t think I've ever seen a rally change someone's beliefs, it certainly didn't change mine.

This is what I mean when I say the left actually tries stuff. Sure, the things they try may never actually give any worthwhile results, but it's more than what anyone else is doing. So for that, I must commend them, but that's all the praise they’ll get from me.

Other than not being cowardly for the most part, they have nothing going for them. They’re all weird, out of shape, mentally ill, crossdressing faggots.

They all have some weird “kink” that they're into, most of them are pedophiles, and they like to push their gay propaganda into children's heads because they could never convince an adult that what they believe is actually good.

They like to “parade” around the streets during their “special” days/month, half of them will be naked, and the other half is in fetish gear.

I believe they all deserve to be hung or forced into a labor camp for that.

The Failed Ideology:

“What do you think it would take to clean this country up, do you think it would take prayers, and candles, and teddy bears? Or would it take some killing?” -James Mason

Communism, as a belief system and ideology has been nothing but a failure throughout its entire lifespan. First of all the biggest failure of communism is its idiotic belief in internationalism, simply put there can be no class revolution when niggers dont work anyways and mexicans will just replace you when you try to unionize.

The belief that communists have in internationalism will always be their biggest downfall and it will be one of the many reasons they will never succeed

The communists say they believe in “class consciousness” but they fail to realize that all the people they hate are jewish. They think that if the proletariat revolts against the “bourgeoisie” (jews), then we can all share everything and everyone will be happy.

I’m sorry to tell you this, but that's a load of horse shit. If you fail to realize that some people are different and can’t work together, then your revolution will never succeed, the russian revolution succeeded because they were, guess what, all russian. They didn't have niggers, spics, chinks, and muzzies mixed in that were still willing to work the worst possible conditions.

The reason that almost no one can unionize in america is because the jewish owners will just fire the protesters and hire some dirty mexican to work their job for a lower wage.

One more problem with the bolshevik commie scum is that bolshevism itself is founded in judaism, therefore making it a jewish ideology, and hopefully you've figured out that jewish ideologies are always meant to benefit the jews or as commies call them, the "bourgeoisie"

Now of course some people will advocate for just socialism, but thats still as retarded as the communists, as they will never truly be able to revolt against their jewish overlords when they're too busy sucking nigger dick while their "spouse" gets fucked by another man.

If you want an example of a good "communist" country, then take a long look at the democratic peoples republic of korea, the DPRK figured out that if they didn't nationalize and keep to themselves then they would surely succumb to the jews.

I would personally consider Juche to be closer to National Socialism than to typical communism, because they figured out something very important.

Socialism without nationalism will never succeed. Get it in your head faggot.

Culture:

“To die for a noble cause was thought the most glorious, heroic, or honorable way to die” -Yukio Mishima

The quote above holds an unshakeable truth, yet almost no one in the modern day is willing to die for a noble cause. The current culture of the whites, niggers, and spics holds this true.

The white culture is dying because the ones following it are getting slaughtered, while the ones that transition into nigger or cuck culture are thriving. The white man who follows nigger culture is no better than the nigger themself.

While the focus of this letter/manifesto is placed on the kikes and muslims, we do have to talk about this problem, because even if we get rid of the root, the poison is still here.

I think killing the niggers is an overall benefit to this world, as the whole culture does play a huge part into their violent tendiences, they have the lowest IQ of all races, they are literal subhumans, they cant even get along with eachother, and they cant provide for themselves.

While I think leaving the niggers alone in africa could kill them slowly, as they would have no way to leave as they arent smart enough to invent one. I still think that we ought to slaughter each and every one of them.

Even the niggers that have assimilated into white culture are still low IQ subhumans who were only able to invent the wheel 2019 years after the death of Christ.

The same could be said for the Middle Easterners. I would specify muslims, but that won't cover all of them, as some have converted to other religions, and even worse to say is that some white people have sadly converted to Islam. This is a terrible thing to hear, as the white muslim is worse than the Arab one.

Now I must say, while the white muslim is certainly less violent, this does not make them better. That is because Islam is a religion that inherently creates hate and division between men. The culture and laws of Islam do not converge with the white culture and laws. And while the arab is already accustomed to that culture, the white man isn't. This can change the white culture and make it worse, just look at the average city in most muslim countries compared to most white countries.

Of course, this is not to say that it is okay for the arab to be muslim, I think that the religion of Islam is a plague on this Earth. But if they want to practice it in their own country, then who am I to stop them? They'll just be killing each other. My problem is when they try to bring it to MY country, OUR country, a WHITE country.

Oh, and I almost forgot. The spics. They are practically in the same boat as the niggers, while spic culture isn't as violent, it is way worse in the social aspect. I think this sums it up well enough, and nothing more needs to be said.

Muslims:

“It was there I decided to do something, it was there I decided to take action, to commit to force. To commit to violence.”
-Brenton Tarrant

Now this might sound hypocritical since I just stated I believe these “things” don't have a terrible culture, this does not mean I care for them. They, along with the kikes, are the scum of the earth. There can be no good society while they are still here.

They must be isolated and exterminated.

If we are to move forward as a society, race, and species, we have to get rid of this pest. They masquerade as “human” while all they do is take up space and resources, while contributing nothing to our society. The Muslims are violent and like to prey on women and children. The kikes aren't as violent, upfront, of course, but they still like to prey on our children and ruin us for their own benefit.

There is no reason for us to stand by and let them do this, in fact, it is only right that we defend ourselves and our neighbors.

They are parasites feeding on us, and all we have done so far is watch and let them. It's been long enough, there is zero reason for us to let this happen.

There is no benefit, no purpose, nothing. The only reason we have let this happen is because we've been told to by their puppets, the puppets we trusted, the puppets that have betrayed us over and over again. We have been told "diversity is our strength." but when has it ever helped us?

There is no unity, and without unity there is no society. "America was built by immigrants." Yes, WHITE immigrants, from WHITE countries. There is NO reason to let this go on for any longer.

I say we need to cleanse our homes, once and for all.

The Jewish Question:

"Neither pleasure nor pain should enter as motives when one must do what must be done" - Julius Evola

The Jewish Identity as a concept is an enigma, their identity itself is a nation yet they operate without a nation, doing as they please. The Jew acts as if no law binds them and if you try to hold them accountable for their actions, suddenly you are the problem.

The Jew cares not for the goyim, for the goyim are not Jewish. The goyim, in their eyes, are no more than animals, to do with as they please. Even before the holocaust myth came about, the Jew would always act like a victim despite being the ones with power. The Jews opened the gates for the muslims invading Spain, yet act as if the Spanish kicked the Jew out for no reason at all, even though the Jew is parasitic.

The Jews always call themselves God's Chosen People, even though that title very clearly goes to the 12 european tribes, those tribes being the Basque, Balkan, Baltic, Central European, East Slavic, French, Germanic, Italian, Sardinian, Sicilian, South French, and Spanish tribes.

The Jews are more so akin to children of satan, bringing evil across the world, destroying Godly morals and traditions, plaguing and ruining his people, and enslaving those whom they see fit.

Every problem in the modern world can be connected to the Jews, for example, the negros in america were brought over by jewish slavers, the muslims in europe were let in by jews, by their policies and by starting wars, the degeneracy found in both public streets and schools were implemented by jewish lawmakers, and the economy going to shit has been caused by jewish wars and policies.

The Jew acts as a parasite, thriving off the decline of the west and the death of the white race, they seek to kill every white man, woman, and child for the sake of their happiness, in Klaus Schwab's book "The Fourth Industrial Revolution" he states,

"At least 4 billion "useless eaters" shall be eliminated by the year 2050 by means of limited wars, organized epidemics of fatal rapid-acting diseases and starvation. Energy, food, and water will be kept at subsistence levels for the non-elite, starting with the white populations of Western Europe and North America and then spreading to other races. The population of Canada, Western Europe, and the United States will be decimated more rapidly than on other continents, until the world's population reaches a manageable level of 1 billion, of which 500 million will consist of Chinese and Japanese races, selected because they are people who have been regimented for centuries and who are accustomed to obeying authority without question.".

They hate us and in Klaus Schwab's own words, “You will own nothing, and you will be happy.”

Paganism:

“They will stumble again and again, they will fall one on another and say, 'Get up, let us return to our people, to our homeland, away from the sword of the oppressor.” Jeremiah 46:16

I want to keep this section short because I don’t have much to say about them.

I don’t feel any hatred towards pagans and paganism, though I do think your religion is wrong. The only thing I hold against pagans is what they hold against Christians.

Stop hating on Christianity, stop calling it a “slave” religion. Tell me again, which one of us fell, and which one of us fought the muslims off? Oh, right, you guys fell while we defended Europe from the Islamic invaders.

I think the split between pagans and Christians is what could end the white race once and for all. We don't need more infighting, we need unity. The jews want us to fight among ourselves so that we can't fight them. Don't let the jews win.

Remember, anyone who claims to be a “Judeo-Christian” is either a kike or some retarded goyslave who doesnt understand that jewish values are anti-christian, and any kike that claims to be a Christian is a lying faggot. Real Christians are the soldiers who stood up to fight the kikes, such as Saint John Earnest.

Acceleration Towards Societal Collapse:

“Quit your job and go shoot a politician” -Mike Ma

Modern society is too far gone, it is completely controlled by the kikes. There is no possible way to save it.

The only solution to the current state of the world is to accelerate towards the complete and utter collapse of society. Without the collapse of society, the kikes will be able to gain control, and there is zero doubt about that in my mind.

We need to destroy our current system so we can build a new and better one for the future of our race. One without kikes, goatfuckers, niggers, spics, and chinks.

If we don’t destroy our current society, then I'm afraid we’ll be beaten back again, as our children might fall for the jewish lie. That is something that cannot be allowed.

The Beauty of War:

“I love the name of honor more than I fear death.” -Gaius Julius Caesar

Whilst most may consider war a bad and terrrible thing, I do not. I believe the art of war is a beautiful thing, one may say I find peace in its destructive nature, for one thing is certain, war will always be.

Humanity has always known war, before humanity was, war waited, before war was, there was nothing. I believe the act of war is the accumulation of all of humanity's efforts, throughout all of history, and throughout all of creation, humanity has always desired war above all else. Whether that be to prove ones tribe superior to the other, or to take the lands and riches of another, even the first humans knew war, such as Cain and Able, war existed even before humanity, when Lucifer waged war on Heaven.

War always has been and always will be, it is a definitive fact, even during so called times of peace, war has existed, such as the yugoslav wars, the wars in africa, the panama war, the war on terror, the war on drugs, or even the most recent war against Iran. Most people would say we are currently in a time of peace, but if thats true then why are so many people at war with eachother? The answer is simply because war is humanity's nature, we cannot escape it no matter how hard we try. Each and every one of you reading this right now has waged some type of war, whether that be physically or mentally, against a person or against some sort of task. So why do we so adamantly try to escape our nature of waging war?

The upcoming Race War will be another type of war, it will be the most beautiful one yet, cleansing this earth of the disgusting filth walking all over it. I consider it to be an honor to fight and die for my race, while it may sadden some of you that we have to fight for our survival, do not be disheartened. Instead find the beauty, peace, and honor in being able to serve your people, whether that be as a soldier, a scholar, or a martyr.

Everyone has their purpose, everyone will die eventually. If you fear death now, how will you ever reach Heaven?

The Industrial Complex:

“The Industrial Revolution and its consequences have been a disaster for the human race.” -Theodore John Kaczynski.

The first step to freeing our people is the sabotage of the industrial complex. Before the Industrial Revolution, mass immigration wasn't even an idea. The only thing the average man had to worry about was doing his job and caring for his family, there was no social media, there was no loneliness epidemic, and there were no migrants.

The average man used to have a purpose, they didn't have to worry about what another family was doing because they had to focus on their own family. The industrial revolution has severed family ties and destroyed all purpose, leaving the modern man with nothing but emptiness.

In order to change this, we must sabotage the industrial complex and bring humanity back to what it once was.

If we can destroy the industrial complex, then we can free mankind from the slavery that it brings upon us. It will bring back a sense of purpose as man will have something to work and care for, and it will help us preserve this world and its nature from the prison that is modern cities.

Every man requires a goal that demands effort and the ability to attain that goal, and modern society gives him none of that.

There is no goal in slaving away everyday of your life, theres no effort, nothing to attain, there is no point…

Why should I follow the system that drains the life out of me and gives me nothing in return?

They do not give me anything to strive for like in the past, nothing to thirst for, nothing to hunger for.

Back before the industrial complex man had a goal to attain every day, and that was to survive. He needed food, water, shelter, and warmth. And when he attained that, he felt at peace, happy.

Not anymore, now you can just buy all of that, there's no effort.

The Natural Order (and what can be done to preserve it):

“The Lord God took the man and put him in the Garden of Eden to work it and take care of it.” -Genesis 2:15

The current state of the natural world and its beauty is something being destroyed by the jews, the industrial complex run by them, and the overpopulation of the sick-minded people who have no care for our world.

Without a change to this problem, the world as we know it will cease to exist.

The green pastures, the lush forests, the rolling hills, and the high mountains. They will all be destroyed by the greed of humanity.

The only solution I can see to this problem is the mass-murder of kikes, muslims, niggers, spics, chinks, and faggots.

Now we don't need to kill all of them, though it would be nice, we do need to kill a vast majority of them.

I'm not stupid enough to not realize how troubling the logistics of such a task are, but this is simply put, the only real solution I could come up with to save our dying earth.

The indians and chinese are the biggest causes of pollution and destruction to our natural world, yet the problem is with the west?

Why are we the only ones that try to fix this?

Why don't they do anything to save our earth?

It's because they're greedy fucking parasites that want to suck our resources dry until the entire earth is one giant ball of fucking dust that can't sustain any living creature.

They have no care at all for our earth and its beauty, they dont see the problem with all of the factories they have and all the pollution they cause.

So I say, why not kill them?

It's not like they'll change.

And besides, killing them will reduce our "overpopulation" as the globalist kikes like to call it, so it's a win-win in my book.

Sure, we could sustain billions upon billions upon billions of people, but at what cost?

All that would do is create another mumbai. We don't need more humans, we need better humans.

We need to increase the quality of humans, not the amount.

And yet at the point we’re at, the death penalty has disappeared, weirdly enough. Not every human is equal, not every life matters the same.

Some people deserve to be killed off, even if they are of European birth. We don't need the scum of the earth. The rapists, the murderers, they don't deserve to live in the same world as the perfectly good and lawful citizens.

While my current solution cannot happen as we have not gained power yet, what can happen is for you, the reader, to go out and further the movement. YOU can go out and help save our earth.

Make some bombs, kill some people, destroy some shit. Because our world used to be alive, now it's dying.

Boats used to get stopped from the sheer amount of fish in the ocean, now, a mere 1% of that amount of fish is left. Our world's nature is getting turned into a concrete wasteland, this type of damage is irreparable, and this exceeds any pace that has been seen in the past.

Soon our entire world we be gone, and there won't be a single thing we can do about it.

Once it's gone.

It

Is Gone.

The Replacement of the White Race:

“A man with nothing left to lose is a very dangerous man and his energy/anger can be focused toward a common/righteous goal.” -Timothy McVeigh

The white race is dying and getting replaced by subhuman animals as we speak. This is because the kikes hate us. They believe that the “goyim” (non-jew) are animals, “even the best of the goyim should be killed”.

To them, the white race is their worst enemy, we are the ones capable of standing up to them. They believe they are superior and chosen by god, yet at the same time, they are afraid of our capabilities.

They want the white race to be weak so that it's easier to replace them with the more subservient dark-skins.

They believe that the negro and muslim is a bio-weapon to be used against white people in order to destroy our values, race, and culture. And as of right now, it's working.

They put in place things like “Feminist”, “Black”, and “Communist” movements in order to divide us so we have a harder time standing up to them.

They believe that if they can make the men feminine, weak, and broken. That they will not fight back.

They believe that if they can make the women “independent”, perverted, and hateful. That they will not breed with white men, therefore destroying our gene pool.

So far, many have fallen for the propaganda that we need to bring in more immigrants, feel bad for the shitskins, or apologize just for being white.

Fuck that, why should I apologize for being born?

Why should I give up and let the ZOG destroy and replace my people?

They are killing our race, and I do not believe this should be going on any longer.

Modern Feminism and the Problems with Women

“I have lived such an unnatural life, devoid of love, sex, and pleasure.” -Elliot Rodger

Now this is a topic I care very deeply about. But I know most of you reading this simply don't care about it much, so I have decided to keep this topic short.

Every man needs some sort of relationship to feel happy, even when the rest of their life is good and has no problems. If a man is deprived of the physical and mental touch of a woman's love, then they will feel unhappy.

When man puts effort into finding a relationship but comes out with zero results, and this goes on for their entire life, then that man will fall into a depressive state. Because being deprived of love is something that will slowly kill anyone, man or woman.

But women don't have that problem because every woman can find at least a handful of men that will love them, while not every man will find a woman that loves them.

The problem that most modern women face is that they’ll see that an attractive man is willing to have sexual intercourse with them, and then they'll base their dating standards around that even though it's wildly unrealistic.

The average man on the other hand will try to date a woman that's around the same attractiveness as them, but find that almost none will want to get with them because they're too busy fiending for someone on a higher level.

The vast majority will refuse to date a short guy, even though what they consider short is just average, they think short men aren't worth shit even though short women are the main cause of short men.

Now of course I am not saying every woman is like this, but it happens to be way too many to ignore.

The male suicide rate is rising without any signs of stopping and many women will come out and say it's a good thing.

The current dating world is so bad that most men don't even bother trying to find a girlfriend which will force them into an even worse depressive state than before because they find that it's hopeless.

I can say this with confidence because I experienced the same thing.

This is a problem that can’t be ignored as the consequences of hypergamy mean that even more men will either take their lives or never date a woman leading them to be depressed which can lead them into doing even worse things.

In my personal opinion I believe this problem is an easy fix but we first need to destroy our current societal system which is promoting this type of hypergamous culture.

Opticsfags:

“Screw your optics, I'm going in.” -Robert Bowers

Opticsfags will try to claim we need to look like “regular american/europeans/etc” to try to “subvert” the population.

Fuck that, when has that ever worked? No one who watches NJF takes him serious anymore, no one takes anything serious anymore. They don't care how you frame your movement or ideology, they’re just going to call you a nazi.

They call Patriot Front a “Violent Neo-Nazi Terrorist Organization”, all they do is put up stickers and march around, they don't even believe in anything truly radical! I do! Fuck your optics!

Instead of your gay opticsfagging and appealing to the degenerate and immoral society, you should embrace Total Dropout Revolution, Helter Skelter.

Modern society is immoral and has been taught to hate anything that isn't taught by their jewish masters, and like the good cattle they are, they listen. They call NJF (paleo-conservative) a nazi, they call Patriot Front (Neo-Fascists) nazis, they call fucking Trump (A jewish shill) a nazi.

I don't know how many times I'm gonna need to say it, but they will not listen! Who cares if you have a damn swastika, they view that as just as "bad" as being a groyper, I can't think of a better example to name than the third(world)-positionists who would rather glaze and dickride stalin than admit hitler was good.

"B-b-but Mussolini said National pride has no need of the delirium of race!" Mussolini also killed 270,000 to 340,000 niggers in ethiopia and was allied with Hitler.

Spain, Romania, Italy, Hungary, Yugoslavia/Croatia/Serbia, America(Silver Legion and the general populace before the war) and Britain(Oswald Mosley) all were allies or had positive views on the Germans/Nazis.

Stop being faggots that try to distance yourselves from national socialists, its okay to be a fascist instead but dont be retarded, they view your fasces the same as they view our hakenkreuz.

The Purpose of the Crusade:

“What value does my life have compared to the entirety of the European race? -John Earnest

Sure, I possibly had a future, but what does that matter when my children won’t have a future? What about my children's children? Would they have a future? I am happy to throw away my own future if it means I can help secure a future for my race and white children.

The reason I have made the choice to do this is because I know if I’m not willing to sacrifice myself for this cause, then who will? If I am not going to do anything to secure a future for my people, then who will? If I do not do something to benefit my cause, then who will? If I do not do this, then who will?

I know my cause is not a very popular one, but I also know that it is the right one. My ancestors so called “sins” are justified, and mine will be also. My ancestors fought for their homes and families, and now so must I.

If you are reading this and you agree with my views, or anything I have done, then I urge you to go out and do something. Do something worthwhile, something that will make a change, start your own crusade. It does not matter if you go alone or if you have a friend to go with you. I tell you now, do something.

For the sake of a better society.

For the sake of our future.

The Racial Holy War:

Soon will come The Day of The Rope, such a bloody day will be unavoidable. In order to win this war, we will need to hang every nigger, kike, spic, chink, lawyer, politican, race mixer, race traitor, and faggot. Those who are not hung will be shot, and those who are not shot will be killed in a different way.

This will be a necessity that the white race will have to undertake. The revolution should be swift and brutal, striking those whom we oppose.

If you cannot do something on a large scale, then do something small, something constant. Grab a gun, kill a politican or a nigger or a kike. What we need is not only large attacks, but rather constant ones. We need attacks to happen so often, that they become weekly, or even daily occurrences.

We need this to happen so often that whenever the news starts reporting a case, a new one has already appeared.

Stop being a coward, go out and kill someone.

Guerrilla Warfare:

“Firstly, do not fear hardship, and secondly, do not fear death.”
-Mao Zedong

Guerrilla warfare is our backbone and if we want to survive and succeed then every one of you must study it, read the US Handbook on guerrilla warfare, read chairman mao, read the art of war, study the tactic of the IRA, this is how we win.

It is impossible to state the sheer importance of a guerrilla force, without guerrilla warfare we would have no hope of success. Make sure to have numerous cells, operating separately under one idea, give no one more information than they need, which is their squad and their leader.

If one person gets caught it is vital that they are unable to tell enemy operatives anything useful, because in the case they do get caught, anything will be done to get that information out of them.

Cells need to be able to solve their own supply problems, generally through ambushes or raids, and they need to do able to function on their own. If a cell needs the command center or leader of the revolution to guide them, then that cell is destined to fail.

In the case of a guerilla war, do not mind international law and “human rights”, everyone will be out to get you purely for being national socialists anyways. Take what you have to get what you need, use psychological warfare, chemical warfare, infiltrate the enemies and then backstab them, do whatever it takes to win. If you don’t now then you will not get a second chance.

Make sure to use drones as the enemy certainly will, recon drones and FPV drones will be the most useful, you can use them when clearing rooms, as ambushes, or you can send them into areas that the enemy would generally consider safe. Make sure when clearing a room to learn and use tactics that both law enforcement and military would use, one such example would be slicing the pie.

After a successful ambush, make sure to search and loot as fast as possible, reinforcements will arrive sooner rather than later, grab what you can, cache what you cant, destroy anything you cant take or cache, and then leave.

My Gear:

Obtaining/Making Gear

Guns: The best solution would be to buy your guns but if that isn't possible then you can make them though that is on the riskier side, instructions will be shown on how to make some.

Molotovs: Now these are a very useful and easy to make tool. I believe that everyone should bring at least one of these if they plan to do something.

Melee: I believe this could be a useful sidearm in the case you get into a skirmish and drop your gun, but generally you don't want this to be your main weapon.

Body Armor: Now while it is possible to make this, you shouldn't. This is the most reckless thing you could make, just buy some instead.

Helmet: Buy it also.

GoPro: Try to get the latest version you can if you plan to stream your attack, which you should, after you get it you just need a helmet mount or a way to attach it to your vest.

A Summary:

“The blood of the heroes is closer to God than the ink of the philosophers and the prayers of the faithful” - Julius Evola

To keep it short, I would like to say we need to cleanse this world of the filth that’s currently infecting it, we need to accelerate to complete societal and industrial collapse, so we can build a truly prosperous society for our people.

There are no non-combatants in a war for survival.

Stand up and face your future.

Show no mercy.

Kill them all.
